Z400F. This app is available for your Tizen phones. WhatsApp Messenger is a nice social networking app. Read the full article to know about all of its features. However, Tizen never reached its full potential in the smartphone segment, mainly because of poor app support. Facebook has withdrawn its four major social media and messaging apps – Facebook, WhatsApp, Instagram, and Messenger – from the Tizen Store. Once you start using this app you will get to know how useful this app is and how easy it is to use and share any information across the world with your contacts. The best thing is along with messages you can send photos, links, pdf, videos and voice messages also. Just 32.84 MB is required. Neither Samsung nor Facebook will be willing to invest resources on Tizen smartphones any longer. Now that it's gone, Tizen smartphone users have little choice when it comes to having a chat or making video calls with their friends and families.Facebook, Instagram, and Messenger also consistently featured in the "top downloads" list over the years. You are always logged in, so you don't miss any message. You just require an internet connection (4G, 3G, 2G, EDGE or Wi-Fi). The App Interface WhatsApp Messenger app is an excellent app for messaging your friends and family and stay connected whenever you want without using money. Worst yet, these apps no longer work even if you already have them installed on your Tizen phone.WhatsApp and other Facebook apps removed from Tizen StoreTizen OS powers many of Samsung's electronic products such as televisions, home appliances, IoT devices, and smartwatches. There are lots of emojis also to express your feelings while messaging. You can also set custom wallpaper, sound notification, email chat history. They demand that Samsung or Facebook should bring back all the apps to the Tizen Store. It'll automatically be installed on your device. Tizen Store doesn't allow anyone to share the App link directly from its store. That's primarily because it was the only major instant messaging app available on Tizen-powered smartphones. This feature is also beneficial for students who want to share any information with all their classmates. You can even make a group of your friends and family in which you all can chat with multiple people at a time as a group chat. If any problem occurs then watch my downloading procedure video. Then Your downloading will be start. Over the past three years, Tizen powered smartphones have lost support for various apps and services, including Samsung's own My Galaxy in early 2019. Like other apps, you don't need to log in and log out every time. READ MORE Instagram-For Tizen Mobiles You just require your phone number to use this app and it is very easy for your friends to find you by just saving your number in their phone. This app is a great app for communicating with your friends and family who are far away from you. You can also put your display picture and see others. You don't require any additional recharge for using this app. That pretty much signaled an official end of Tizen smartphones.However, owing to their low prices and solid performance despite packing low-end hardware, Tizen smartphones sold pretty well in markets like India, Bangladesh, and South Africa, where many people still don't have access to smartphones.The removal of Facebook apps has got many such users worried. It only requires an internet connection, in that also it does not require much of your data. But that's highly unlikely to happen, unfortunately. It also doesn't require much data. They don't need to remember your username. There are so many features in this app that make it ideal for communicating. The Samsung Z4, which launched in May 2017, was the last model in the series. It is developed by Facebook. There are many advantages and features in this app which you will get to know while using it. It just uses your internet connection to communicate and share stuff with your friend. These apps are no longer available for download from the store. As in SMS, you are additionally charged for international messaging, in WhatsApp you are not charged additionally. You can message as many messages as you want, it doesn't cost money for every message as in SMS. READ MORE Facebook-App For Tizen-Make New FriendsHow to Download This app can be downloaded on the Tizen Store but you have to do some manual stuff. Facebook has been notifying users of this development since June, so the news of this termination doesn't come as a surprise. After clicking that button a new page will be open then select "Free Download" After clicking on "Free Download" a new page will be open then scrolling up your and you will get a option "I'm not a robot" wait 30 seconds and then tick mark the box of "I'm not a Robot". It is a very nice feature, this makes you feel as if you all are together. It also comes just after the shutdown of the Tizen Community website and the Community app.WhatsApp was the most downloaded Tizen app ever since it arrived in the Tizen Store. You can even broadcast messages to multiple contacts at once. Tizen Help is reportedly receiving several queries from worried users about the situation. Then you can find a button "Generate Download Link" and click on it. However, with Tizen smartphones literally dead, Facebook expectedly sees to point in continuing to offer its apps in the Tizen Store. Even if you are offline or your phone is switched off, it will save your message until you next time use the app. Signup or login with your Samsung account on Tizen Store and just search for the 'WhatsApp Messenger' in the search box and download from the link. Samsung was the only maker of Tizen devices and it failed to bring many of its own smartphone apps to the Tizen Store.The company eventually stopped making Tizen smartphones in 2017, after only releasing four models – Samsung Z1, Z2, Z3, and Z4.
