I would always recommend zooming to a particular area, exploring the content there and then zooming back out to the 'Big Picture', unless you have a specific reason; for example panning all the way across a map to demonstrate distance. 100% zoomable and ready for your content. 13 invisible frames already added to speed up your workflow. Only zoom and pan for a reason! Zoom for emphasis and pan for distinction. You're about to create your best presentation ever! Although we don't recommend using circular frames in Prezi, circles themselves can be a very effective design tool. The beauty of this template is that it will suit almost any presentation subject and is infinitely editable. As always, you can use them as you want, and over and over again. We are always interested to hear how you have used them! Download your Prezi Templates Here Creating your Visual Aids, featured, prez Description Youtube Preview Blue Circles is a free Prezi Template with a blue bokeh effect background. I hope you enjoy this template, along with our others. Duplicate, delete or rearrange the circles and create a unique layout. The three colours are there to represent the three act structure and to help you organise your content into relevant sections: Introduction Act 1 Act 2 Act 3 Conclusion/Summary Add section content to one of the main coloured circles and then delve deeper into more detail with the coordinating, smaller circle. You can also make use of the white space, remembering to keep the look clean and uncluttered. When designing templates, we always have the 3 Act Speech Structure in mind, to help you create a well organised, structured and memorable presentation.
