29/11/2021 · Planter's Punch. Making its way to America from Jamaica, this cocktail's recipe was inexplicably written in verse in every magazine that published the drink. Here's the recipe from the Kansas Star in 1903: "One of sour, one of sweet, two of strong, and one of weak." In bartender Craddock's notes he says "To be taken before 11AM, or whenever steam or energy is needed". Bartender Victor Bergeron (AKA Trader Vic) lists the Corpse Reviver N1 with the same ingredients and calls for twisting a lemon peel over the drink. 03/12/2021 · The drink's name means "out of this world" in Tahitian and was reportedly the first mai tai drinker's reaction to taking that initial sip. Though others have claimed to invent the mai tai, the accepted story credits it to Victor Bergeron in 1944 at Trader Vic's original location in Oakland, California. Gardenia is a genus of flowering plants in the coffee family, Rubiaceae, native to the tropical and subtropical regions of Africa, Asia, Madagascar and Pacific Islands, and Australia.. The genus was named by Carl Linnaeus and John Ellis after Dr. Alexander Garden (1730–1791), a Scottish-born American naturalist. Roy Barcroft, Actor: The Purple Monster Strikes. After serving in World War I, Roy Barcroft spent most of the 1920s and early 1930s moving from job to job. It was in the 1930s, after he moved to California with his wife, that he found his ...
