Oak city fish and chips

RALEIGH, N.C. - Business is booming for a Raleigh-based food truck after opening just three years ago. Oak City Fish & Chips just opened a new brick and mortar location over the summer and next month a second restaurant will open in Southeast Raleigh. From shrimp, to calamari, to fries, the authentic spice blend from Oak City Fish & Chips takes their seafood to the next level. Isaac B. Horton is a Raleigh native and the managing partner of Oak City Fish & Chips. He said a void in the seafood market sparked his interest for the concept. "It took off in a major way. The secret behind how we got started is based on two proprietary spice blends I created. One you taste on the french fries and the other on the hush puppies and then one that you taste on the seafood," Horton said. In August, Horton opened a brick and mortar location inside Raleigh's Morgan Street Food Hall. An additional location will open in Southeast Raleigh this December. Specialties: The fish basket, includes: -boneless fish fillet -colossal shrimp -calamari rings -scallops -signature seasoned fries Location and Hours: Open daily inside Morgan Street Food Hall 411 W Morgan Street, Raleigh For more information about the restaurant and food truck locations, click here. 01 Aug 2020 You can buy or sell mobile food units on FoodTrucksIn.com.
